MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 10.

GENERAL NEWS. Major General Sickles, commanding the Department of the South, has issued an order prohibiting the organization of white or colored persons having arms, or intended to be armed, not belonging to the military or naval forces of the United States. This order will not be construed to prohibit the lawful enrollment of the militia. It prohibits the formation of associations composed of persons who served in the Confederate army, having for their object the perpetuation of any military or civil organiration which was engaged in the war, or the commemoration of any of the acts of the South-

Some of the "boys" of Harrisonburg, Va., got after an obnoxious radical preacher named Price, sent there by the Baltimore Conference, on Sunday last, and gave him "fits." He had been notified that his room was better than his company, but with the consummate impudence of a negro-worshipper, he persisted in spouting forth his radical harangues in the streets. He was arrested for inciting a riot, and taken before Mayor Sibert for trial, who held him to bail in the sum of $100 to keep the peace for 12 months.

The Rev. Dr. J. H. C. Leach, of Farmville, e distinguished minister of the Presbyterian Church, and father of Mr. James Leach, who a few days since killed the elder Walton at Buckingham C.
